Advisers:

Lydia Goos, Art

Carl G. Miller, Editorial and Business

Dear Jim
Keep up the good work in physics. Here's wishing you all kinds of luck and happiness in the future.
Jim, I'm sorry we haven't been more intimate friends, but there was always some other fellow around.
Sincerely,
Jerry

To all graduates who have made, or who will make, an honest effort toward furthering WORLD PEACE, the 1948 Tiger is dedicated.

Dear Jim;
I hope to see you
keep up the good work in physics. Here's wishing you all kinds of luck and happiness
Good Friend,
Jerry Escallier

Dear Jim, I dunno
To a swell
fellow who really knows music and algebra down. I sure hope you have a lot of fun this summer.
Russell "9"

Dear Jim,
Before I knew you
I had heard of your reputation for being a real Custer.
But now I also know that you're also one grand
guy. Lots of success.
Chuck Connell

Dear Jim,-
I wish you
the best of luck
in everything you do. We have gone to school together a long time and I have enjoyed having you in my classes.
Eleanor
Baker

Dear Jimmy,
You nut!!!
You know why.
You know, I think you're going to be a success.
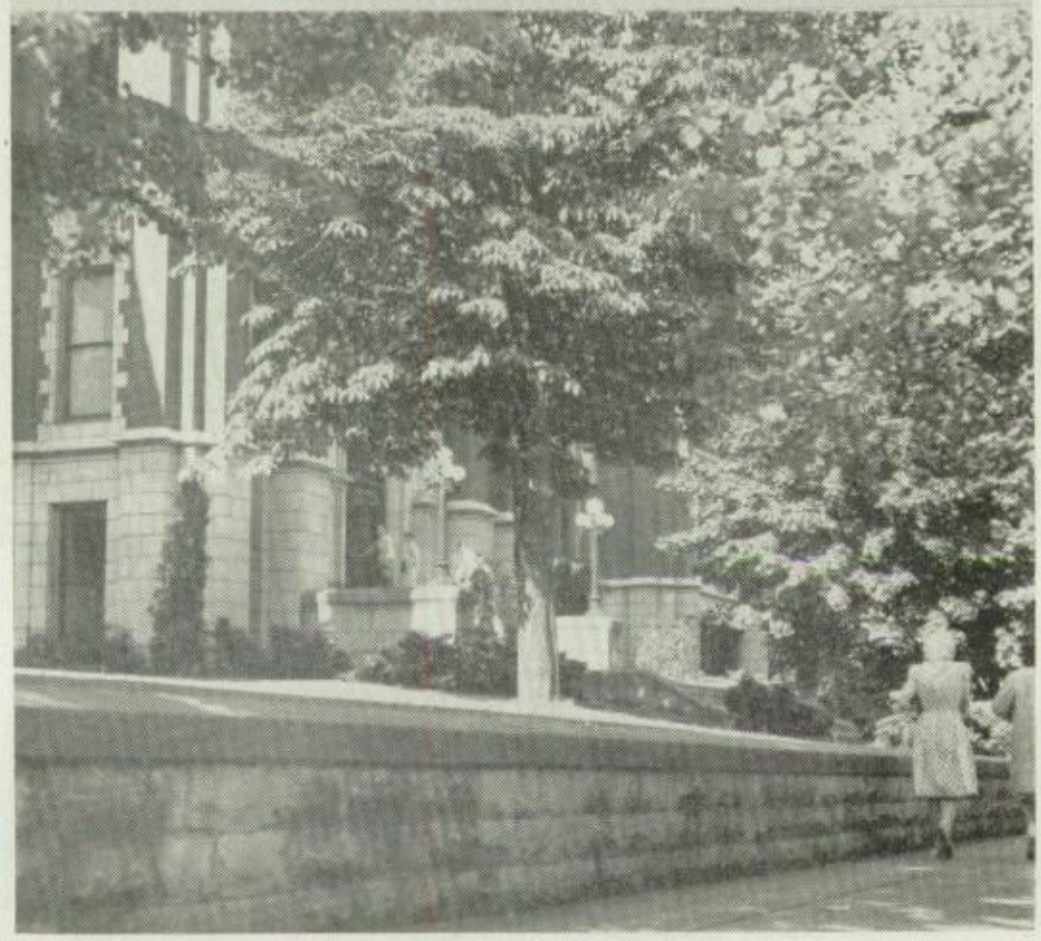
Say, you look
better than ever!
all my love
+ Kisses
Connie



ADMINISTRATION

A. L. Parker ..... Principal
W. W. Taylor ..... Vice Principal
Miss Bernadine McClincy ..... Girls' Adviser

In a jocular mood while this picture was taken is the administrative staff—left to right: A. L. Parker, principal; Miss Bernadine McClincy, new girls' adviser; and W. W. Taylor, vice principal.

Miss McClincy, an L. C. graduate in June '27, taught math here. She joined the WAVES in 1942 and remained in the service for three and one-half years working as a weather specialist most of the time. As girls' adviser she succeeded Miss Rachel Davis.

MATHEMATICS AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENTS

The above picture minus Hal Jones, football coach and P. E. instructor, and "Squinty" Hunter, head of the boy's P. E. department, plus Cecil Enlow, head of the Music department, equals the staff of the Mathematics and Physical Education departments.

First row: Doris Popple (PE), Blanche Smith (M), Christina Clausen (M), Anna Banick (PE Girls' Head).
Second row: Fred Kramlich (M. Head), "Art" Walther (M), F. H. Gnagey (M).
Third row: "Bill" Donner (M), Cecil Enlow, John Wuhrman (M), H. P. Aldrich, (M).

STUDY HALLS AND ART DEPARTMENTS

The seven teachers above represent the Study Halls, Fine Arts, and Industrial Arts departments.

First row: Miriam Morgan (F.A.), Lydia Goos (F.A. Head), Irma Johnson (S.H.), Edith Collins (S.H.).
Second row: W. J. Dunlop (I.A. Head), F. A. Sartwell (I.A.), Gerald Meckelson (I.A.).

FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENTS

The Foreign Language and the Commercial departments are pictured above. C. Oliver Fuller, Music department is also present.

First row: Alonzo Woolard (C.), Elmer Orcutt (C.), Elizabeth Stannard (L.), Ethel Hummel (L).
Second row: Bernadette Proulx (L. and C.), Charles Baten (C. Head), Mabel Pope (L. Head), Frances Vecchio (L.).

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The smiling group above makes up the teachers of the English department.

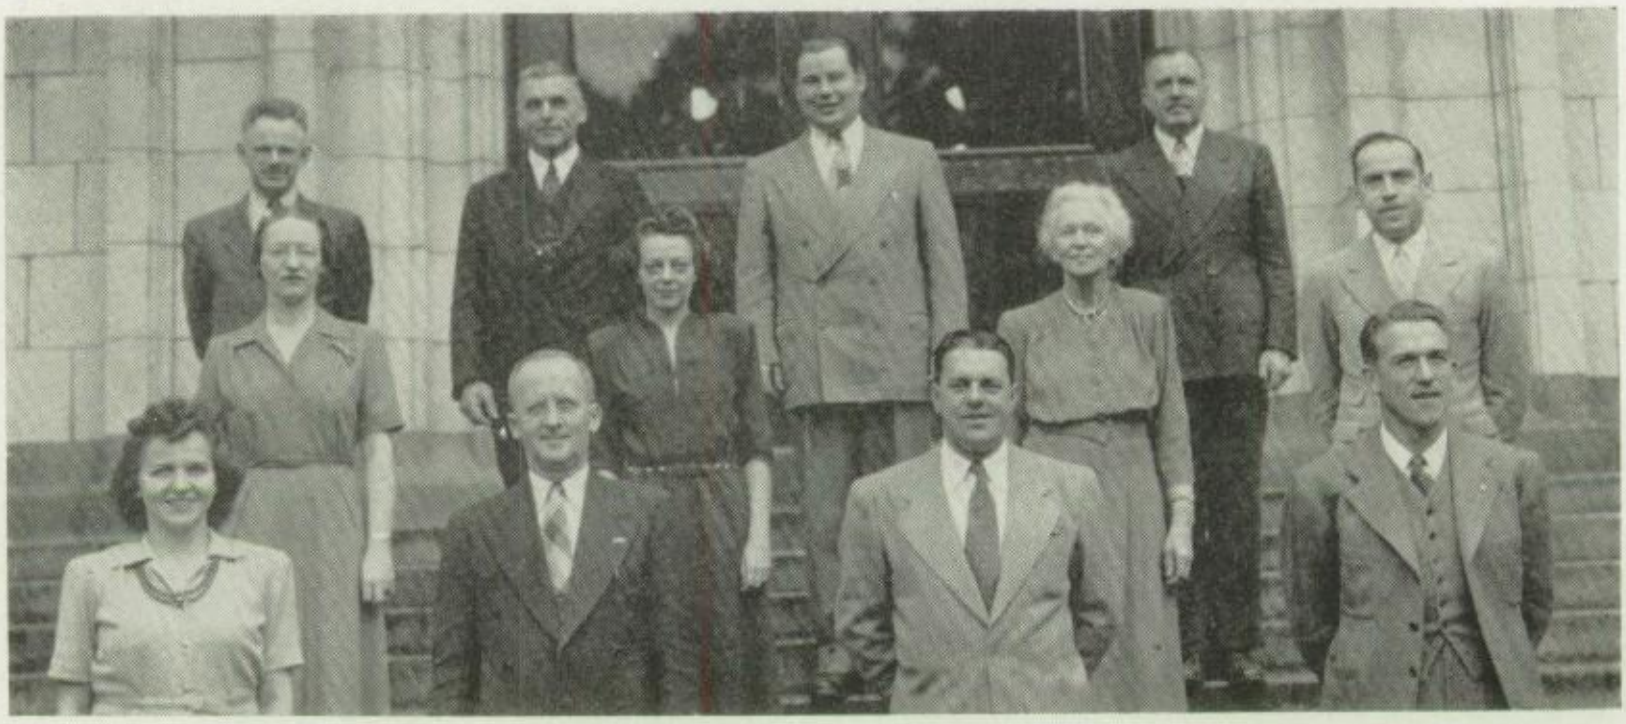
First row: Irene Hunt, Ellen Bungay, Anne Reeley, Marian Pettis (Head).
Second row: Sophia Meyers, Grace Nixon, Pearle Anderson, Francis Vecchio, W. B. Graham.
Third row: Douglas Babcock, Phil Baird, E. E. McElvain.

HOME ECONOMICS AND SCIENCE DEPARTMENTS

The Home Economics and Science departments are shown above.

First row: Carrie Lake (H.E.), Anne Cunningham (H.E.), Averil Fouts (H.E.), Gracia White (H.E. Head).
Second row: H. M. Louderback (S.), Clarence Miller (S.), L. Glen Minard (S.).
Third row: Gene Arger (S.), Charles Canup (S.), Raymond C. Anderson (S.).

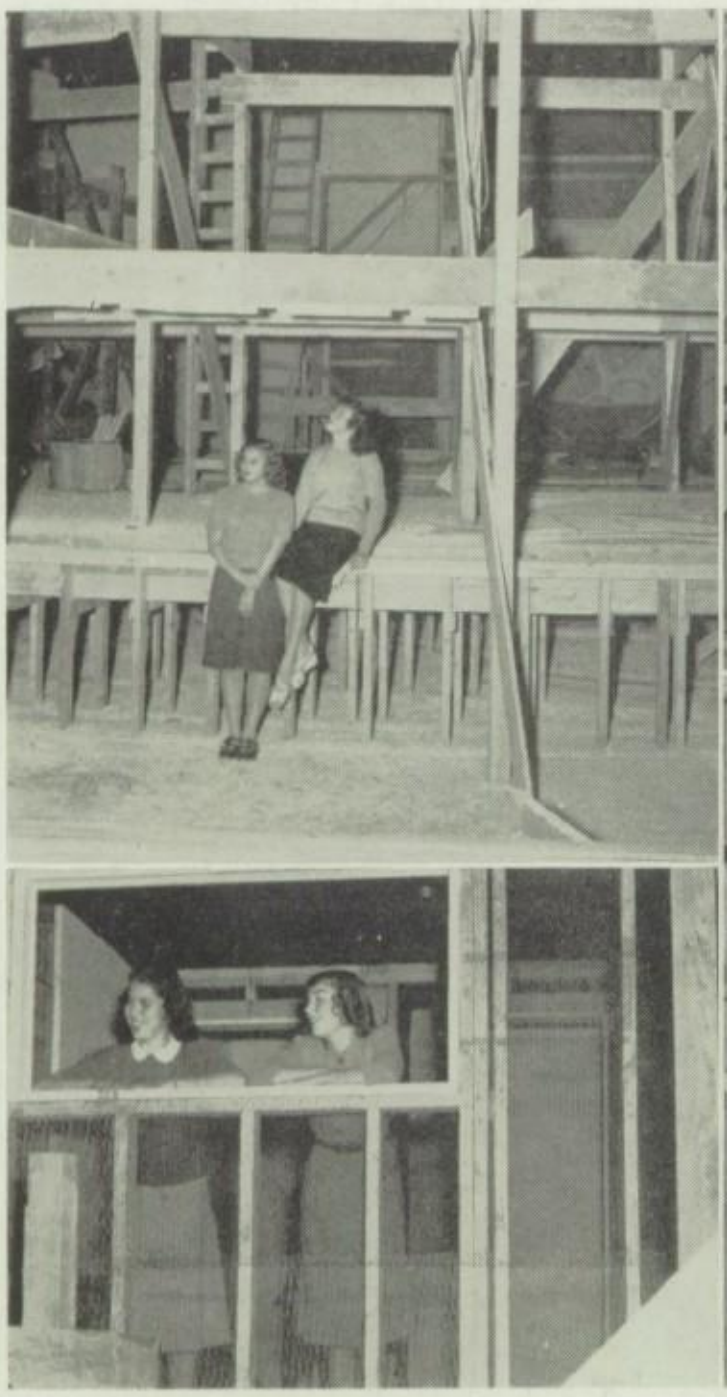
LIBRARIANS AND SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

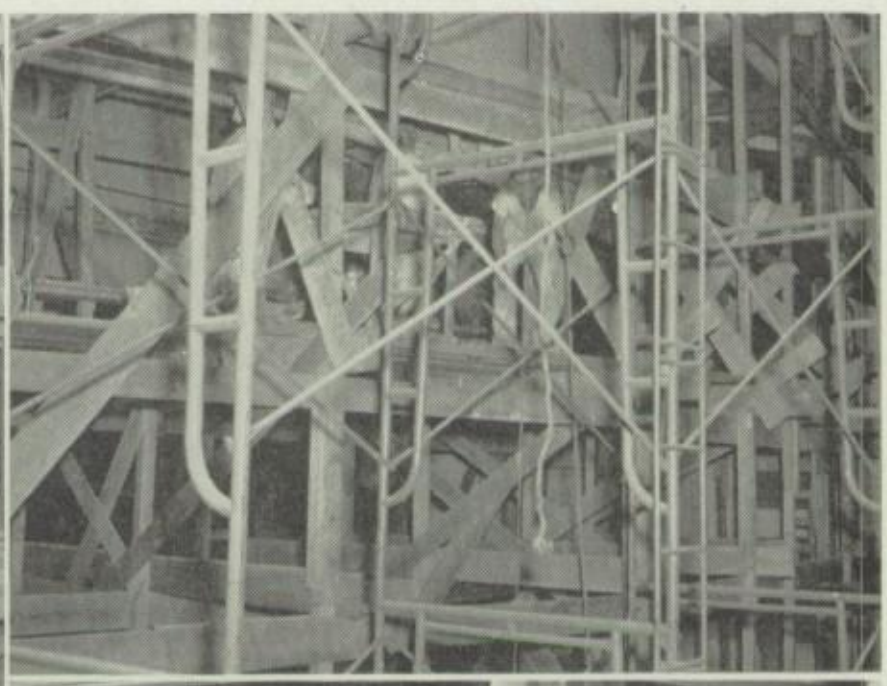


Social Studies teachers and Librarians are gathered on the steps for the picture above.

First row: Lova Wiley (L.), H. D. Thompson (S.S.), Art Frey (S.S.), Max Shoening (S.S.).
Second row: Katherine Hunt (S.S.), Hazel d'Urbal (L. Head), Ruth West (S.S. Head), Norman Perring.
Third row: W. B. Graham (S.S.), Dan Whitman (S.S.), Bill Donner (S.S.), Louis Livingston (S.S.).

AUDITORIUM IN RECONSTRUCTION





Upper left: Thelma Huppin and Dorothy Allen are seen gazing about them in awe of the maze of scaffolding in the auditorium. They are sitting on the edge of the stage.

Upper right: (Puzzle) Find three men among scaffolds. (Hint) They are working on arch above new proscenium.

Lower right: Four charming misses, Barbara Danielson, Helen Dumas, Marene Murphy, and Nancy Kokat, are surveying, with a variety of expressions, work being done on the stage director's room.

EXPERTS AND OTHERWISE!

Upper left: Grouped around the statue of Socphocles on the third floor one morning before school were seen Mary Alice, Lois Miller, Elaine Reed, Betty Hayes, Evelyn Rogers.

Upper right: Well known about the school as entertainers are Jo Peters, Diane Goff, Anita Pohl, and Ann Parsell.

Lower left: Betty Lou Fry is seated behind her trophies won by some expert tennis playing. They are for Spokane City Junior Women's Singles, Spokane City Girls' High School Singles, Spokane City Girls' Singles, Runner-Up Girls' Singles Inland Empire.

Lower right: The group above are all very intent upon listening to the World Series Game during third period in room 207. From the looks on most of their faces, the game seems to be going in the right direction. Yeah Yankees ! ! ! !

PLAYERS, ESSAYISTS, AND "OTHERISTS"

Top left: Biology 2 students most active in finding practical examples of seed dispersal were Fred "American Newsboy" Wayne, Anita Pohl, and Pat Bartlett. Nice hunting, kids?

Bottom left: Doing L. C. proud in the Anti-Tuberculosis essay contests for Spokane county last November were Barbara Lawrentz and Jerry Eyrich, back row, who won first place in the junior and senior divisions respectively. In the front row are Mary Lou Ferrer—honorable mention, junior division; Bruce Cannon— honorable mention, senior division; and Marene Murphy, who was second in the senior division.

BEAT JOHN ROGERS!

October 3 dawned rather bleak and cold but nevertheless it was the day before the game with Rogers and there had to be a pep con. Since the auditorium was not finished, it was held in front of the building. The new portable microphone was put to good use that day.

The upper picture was taken looking at the group while the lower is looking toward the school.

ACTIVITIES

Dear Jim,

Well here we are,
one more year closer to the time when we shall graduate. I am sure glad my Latin class the old place is over and dull without your wit and humor.
I hope you soon find a girl because you are a swell guy like you since have a good time this summer and be good.
I am looking forward to seeing you during your having a wonderful with you at good old T. C.

IN AND ABOUT L. C. HALLS

Upper left: Beverly Clepper, Ingrid Carlson, Joyce Becker, Ginny Lofgren, Bonnie Parker, D. A. Allen, Ginny Angerer, Jo Anne Anderson, Santa Claus Parker, and Elmer Orcutt (cut off by camera). They are all looking happy over the surprise party given by honorary "Ti-Girl", Mr. Orcutt for his sister members.

Upper right: Mr. Taylor and Mr. Gnagey are looking over the large pile of clothing donations given by the student body during the Clothes for Europe Drive. Mr. Cowing, head custodian, is at the far end of the pile.

Middle left: Seen peering out of the elevator are: Bonnie Parker, Don Sanders, Ronnie Hoy, Don Mead, Gail Myers, all of whom made the "Going Up" column.

Middle right: This candid shot was taken one third period when the Tiger and Journal staffs were hard at work. Elsie Krey, Joyce Becker, Rita Gray, June Schalkau, Bob McLeod, Keith Trantow.

Lower left: Bruce Vails is pointing out the size of the large new incoming electric wire installed for the new auditorium lighting. With him is Lloyd Miniclier. Both boys were members of the stage crew.

Lower right: Fred Johnson, Bill Farr, and Dick Oakley seemed to be engaged in some deep conversation. What does she look like boys?

ATHLETICS

Dear Jim;
Well all I can say is thanks for helping me through 3 & a half years. I sure have been knowing you. You are a true gentleman & a scholar. Loads of luck to a swell guy. Bill Mather "X"

TIGER ACTION ON THE MAPLE FLOOR AND GRIDIRON

Lower right: Bud Roffler laying one up against Rogers. John Kearney following in for a possible rebound.

B-SQUAD BASEBALL

The B-Squad baseball team made a good showing during the spring of 1947, winning three games, tying two, and losing only one.

First row: Tom Melrose, Bill Wakefield, Dick Ager, Jerry Cameron, Curt Bloomquist, Roy Donder.

FUTURE BASEBALL STARS

The 1947 frosh baseball squad produced several outstanding players who might become L. C.'s baseball stars of tomorrow. The team finished in a first place tie in the seasonal playoff.

First row: Jim Walther, Dwight Morrison, Ronald Amundson, Larry Bradburn, Larry Morrison, Lawrence Bostrom, Gunnard Johnson, Lyle Manser.

Second row: Bill Graffis, Reggie Frazier, John Miller, Chuck Coleman, Boyd Lofgren, George Bridgeman, Bob Mothot.

1947 BASEBALL NINE WAS CHAMPION

The Tiger nine, rated low at the beginning of the 1947 season, surprised everyone capturing the city title with seven victories and two defeats. Bud Roffler was credited with hurling six of the wins. Myrle Nead, Ray Renz, and Roffler were chosen L. C.'s representatives on the all-city team.
First row: Don Mead, Roy Shiraga, Harry Roach, Ray Renz, Ronald Hoy.

VARSITY TRACK SQUAD TIE FOR FIRST

The 1947 Tiger thin-clads fought through a hard season to tie with Rogers and North Central for first place in city competition. Pat Murphy, Chip Heitman, Paul Mitchell, Don Sanders, Bob Strong, and Ben Ruehl represented L. C. at the state meet in Pullman.
First row: Dick Goodman, Jim Toole, Ben Ruehl, Rod Dent, Skip Gilbert, Adrian Kearney, Chip Heitman.
Second row: Paul Mitchell, Leighton Bailey, Bob Harder, Edsol Sheva, Dever Gregg, Bob Strong, Neal Bock.

B-SQUAD TRACK

While the B-Squad won no victories and suffered no defeats it served the school by the pressure its members, by competition, exerted on the A-Squad.

First row: Neil Dompier, Jack Allgaier, Glen Carlson, Merle Haffner, Jerry Eyrich, Neil Cochran, Xen Anthony.

Second row: Bill Boyles, Don McKeehan, Jim Aylworth, Bob Fitzsimmons, Ray Dycus, John Lacy.

Third row: George Nakamura, Rod McInnis, Fred Johnson, manager.

FROSH TRACK TEAM

Finishing with 20 2/7 points, the freshman squad came through the 1947 city tourney in third place.

First row: Joe Sampson, Elgin Fuller, Leonard Pierce, Pat Harlow, Don Fields, Bill Smith, Ken Brown.

CITY FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS AGAIN

For the second year in succession, the varsity squad finished in the number one spot in the city competition, with five victories and one defeat, which was to Gonzaga. Even though the Tiger aggregation came in third in the 1947 Merry-Go-Round game, they displayed game winning ability by defeating Gonzaga 20-7 as the season opened. The Bengals suffered a 20-14 loss at the hands of an alert Longview eleven in a post-season game.

First row: (Managers) Max Davis, Norman Radley, Gayle Davis, Doug Coffman.

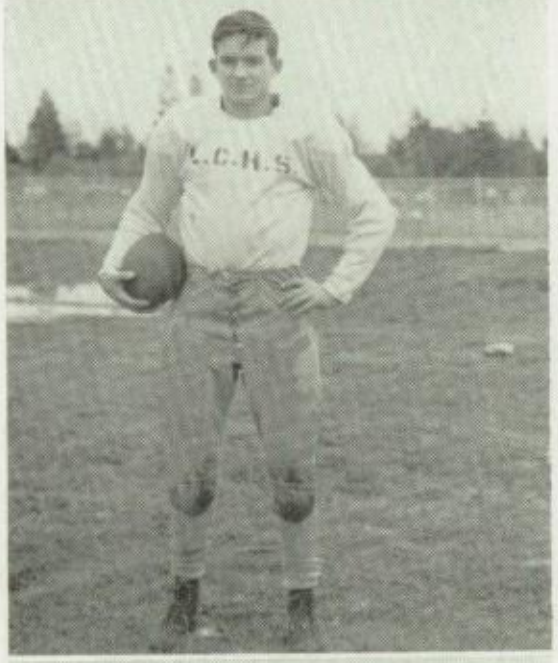
Not in picture: Myrle Nead.

Everett Best, left end, was noted for his ability to get into the clear on offensive plays. A member of the all-city second team, he was a big factor in the strong Tiger line which held opponents scorage at a minimum. He played good consistent football all season to complete his athletic career at Lewis and Clark.



Myrle Nead, fullback, was often referred to as the speedster who carried the pigskin over the line for the vital 6 points. Nead, playing his first year of football on the starting eleven, notched a place for himself on the team which he will probably fill again next season. The little flash played bang-up ball for the Tigers. .

John Mack, tackle, was co-captain of the championship Tiger gridders. He was chosen all-city tackle and also a member of the 1947 all-state football team which will play a selected Seattle team during the late summer. Mack, a senior, standing 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighing 180, was one of the main plugs in the Lewis and Clark line.

Edsol Sneva, fullback, was one of the mainstays on the Tiger eleven. His unique way of carrying the ball through the line was a threat to the opposition and thwarted L. C. many yards on their advances toward the goal line. Sneva played his first year of varsity ball for the Tigers and in coming years he should be a mainstay for the Bengel eleven.

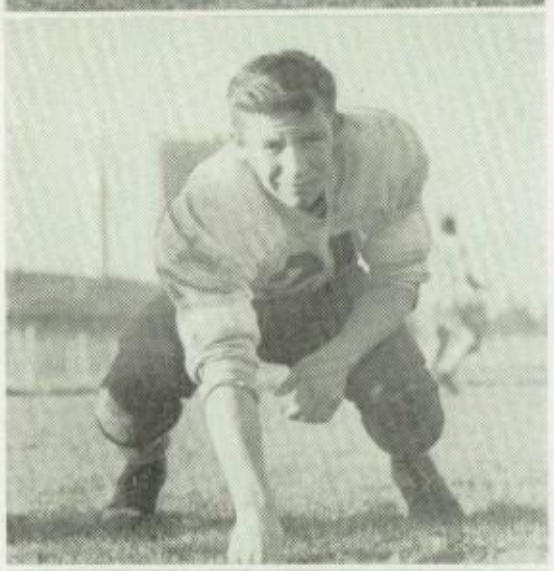
Greg Corliss, tackle, played nearly 60 minutes in every game at the tackle position. He broke up many of the opposition's touchdown-bound-plays. When Lewis and Clark had the ball, Corliss opened up the line for our backs to go charging through for possible gains. He played his final year of football for the Tigers.

Don Mead, quarterback, played three years of football for Lewis and Clark. In his last year he was on the all-city team in the quarterback spot for his outstanding defensive play and hard blocking. Red haired Mead finished in the number four position in scoring with 18 points by virtue of three touchdowns.

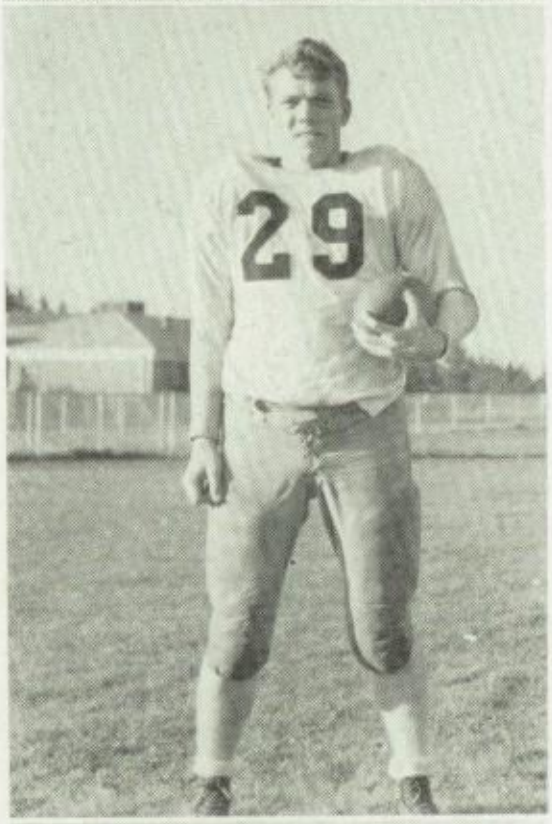
Don Sanders, guard, ran interference for his teammates throughout the season. His specialty was blocking, which enabled many Lewis and Clark runners to cross the goal line. Sanders, standing 5 feet 8 inches and weighing 155, was small for a guard but he played hard, aggressive ball to fill his post capably.

Don McFerran, guard, was a three-year letterman in football. Although he stands 5 feet 8 inches and weighs 163, he did exceptionally well at breaking up the opposition's line to enable his Tiger mates to make good gains. McFerran was the player who could be observed "moving" rival linesmen out of the way of the advancing Tiger eleven.

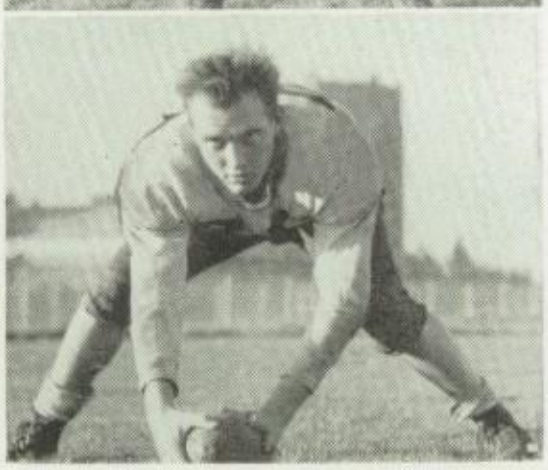
Bud Roffler, left end, was co-captain of the Bengal eleven and a "repeater" on the all-city team. A three-year letterman in football, he was elected to the all-state team by unanimous decision. He set a new city scoring record of 66 points. A senior, weighing 177 pounds and standing 5 feet 11 inches tall, he was an expert place-kicker.



Fritz Gehrke, end, played a fine brand of ball throughout the season. He participated in almost every game for the Tiger eleven. He is a junior standing 6 feet tall and weighing 180. Because of his running abilities Gehrke will probably be a mainstay on next year's team.



Bob Sanders, fullback, played his last season of football for Lewis and Clark. He was able to do an outstanding job at his post because of his size. He stands 6 feet 1 inch tall and weighs 185. He played good consistent football all season.



Jim Dodson, all-city center, was one of the most powerful centers ever to play at Lewis and Clark. He made few faulty passes during the season. His ability to intercept and block passes was well known and respected by opposing teams. The backfield had a high opinion of the big center, who stands 6 feet 1½ inches and weighs 180.

B-SQUAD TIES TWICE

The B football team finished the 1947 season in the league cellar with four losses, two ties, and no wins.

FRESHMAN GRIDDERS

The freshman gridders finished the season in second place with two wins and a single loss, behind the Gonzaga Bullpups. The Tiger eleven had previously defeated Gonzaga in a practice game.

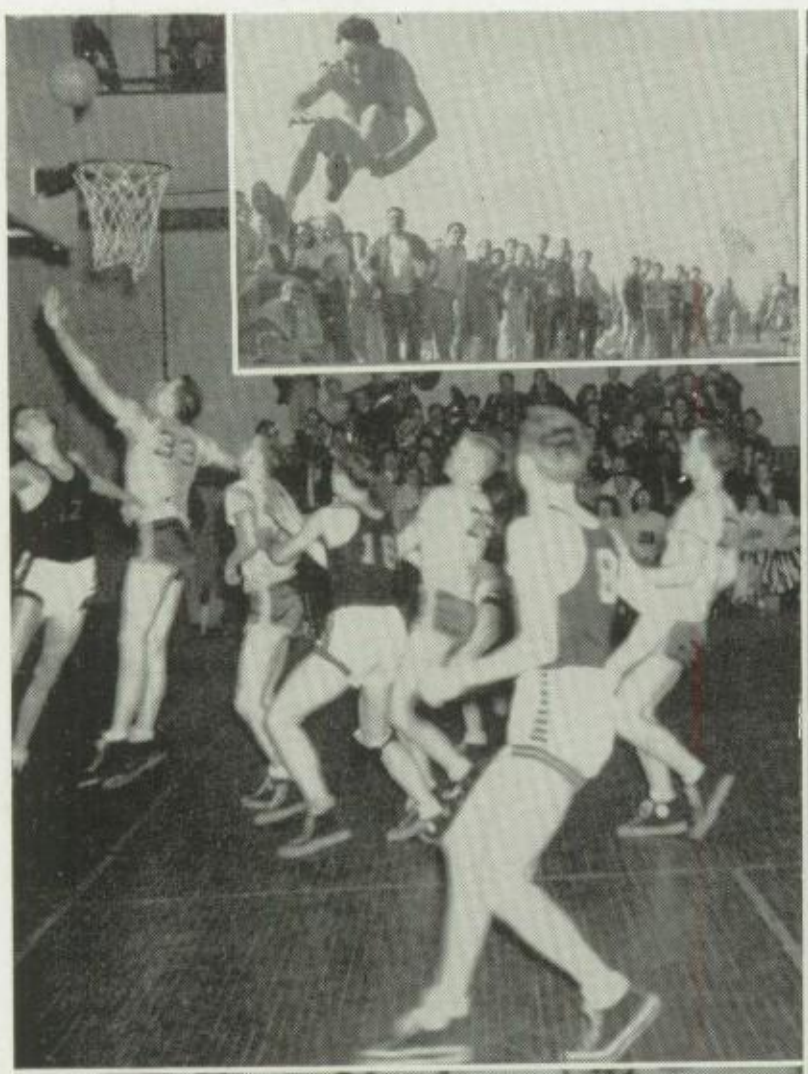
First row: Rodney Clellen, Dave Daggett, Micky More, Darrell Lee, Ted Lott, Toshi Yonaga, Bruce Mauser, Don Hart, Dean Wendle.

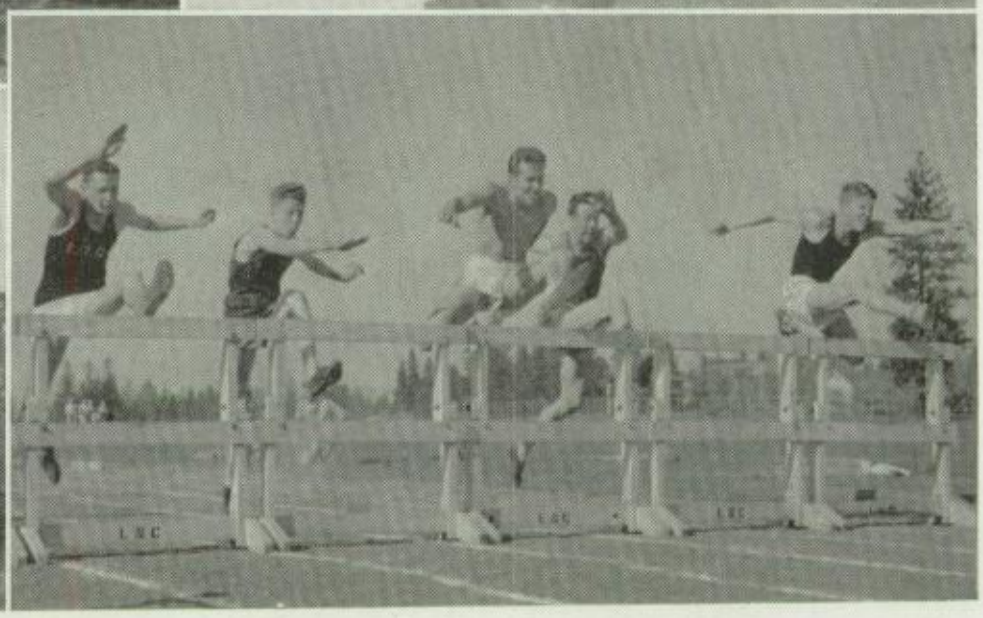
Second row: Keith Swenson, Bob Felker, Ronnie Schmeer, Joe O'Donnell, Ronnie Gordon, Bill Winslow, George Stewart, John Ellis, Gene Morgan, LeRoy Tarbert, Tom Krall, Jim Taylor.

Third row: Dan Kaiser, Guy Hollister, Bob Quaiffe, Jerry Porter, Neil Lang, Joe Sampson, John Chamberlin, Roland Edens, Allen Boyer, Parker Compeau.

Fourth row: Ronnie Davidson, Stan Marks, Ken Brown, Anson Stobie, Don Fields, Claude Azure, John Green, Bob McLean, Vern Johnson.

TIGERS IN THE AIR AND ON THE GROUND!





Upper left: Jack Berlin, number 12, waiting for the rebound. Bob Brownbridge and Bill Wakefield are the other L. C. players coming in for the play.

Upper center: Broad jumper Paul Mitchell up in the air at a 1947 track meet. Note Coach Art Frey watching expectantly in the background.

Lower right: Bob Harder, Leroy Decker, and Dever Gregg are the Tiger thinclads leaping the hurdles.

HOOPSTERS FINISH IN SECOND PLACE TIE

The varsity finished the 1948 basketball season in a second place tie with North Central. The Tigers won seven games and suffered three defeats. A post-season play-off with the Indians was held to determine the second Spokane representative at the state championship meet. The Bengal quintet lost a heartbreaker by 2 points in an overtime period.
First row: Jim Dodson, Bill Mather, Hartley Krugar, Jack Berlin, Bud Roffler.
Second row: John Kearney, Kim Jack, Bob Fitzsimmons, Bob Brownbridge.
Third row: Dick Ager, Bill Wakefield.

B TEAM IN FIRST PLACE

The B team won seven games and lost two to Gonzaga and Central Valley. It finished in the number one position in 1948 city competition. The B's played their games at the Armory before varsity games; thus they gained much valuable experience.
First row: Ted Persons, Jerry Cameron, Dever Gregg, Myrle Nead.
Second row: Jim Walther, Ted Miller, Tom Melrose, Duncan Hallett.
Third row: Bud Brainard, Larry Bostrom, Lee McDowell.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL SQUAD IN THIRD PLACE

The frosh basketball team finished the 1948 season in a third place tie with Rogers. The hoopsters won only one game but their losses were by close margins. Their single victory was won from Rogers.
First row: Claude Azure, Howard Schmidt, Jack Spring, Johnny Halin, Dick Woolard, Bruce Mauser.
Second row: John Chamberlin, Morris Bloom, Guy Hollister, Barry Jones, Milton Fujita, Phil Hull.
Third row: Don Shane, Ronnie Gordon, Griff Steiner, George Stewart, Joe O'Donnell.

GYM CLASS IN SWAN POSITION

Among the activities introduced by Miss Banick, new girls' P. E. head, is this one being demonstrated by a group of freshman girls. The exercises, "Wing Lift in a Swan Position," is to promote flexibility of the back.

BOYS' GOLF SQUAD

Taking second berth in the 1947 city golf tourney, these boys lost to Gonzaga twice and won over N. C. twice.

First row: John Camyn, John Marks, Leonard Camyn, Walter Bush, Ed Wolfe.

Second row: Gene Senna, Peter Reinhardt, Don Goettel, Ernest Sly, Herb Cardel, Thomas Oldershaw.

Third row: Bob Harrington, Dan Anderson, Phil Stanton, Jack Frederick, Herbie Butler.

GIRLS' GOLF SQUAD

The 1947 spring girls' golf squad led city competition with one loss and one tie. The fall team beat N. C.'s golf team 29-1.

First row: Jeanne Stanton, Martha Dorsey, Donna Kjose, Ann Parsell.

Second row: Barbara Danielson, Marilyn Ponath, Shirley Wallace, Virginia Barton, Jean Keilty, Louise Parry.

Third row: Alyce Rae Felt, Mary Sherlock, Donna Porter, Barbara Henderson, Joan Lein, Dody Holderman.

BOYS' TENNIS TEAM

1947 proved to be a successful year for the boys' tennis squad. In the spring the squad won one of its matches and lost two. Intersquad tournaments were played by the fall squad. Don Neraas, Bruce Cannon, and Dave Levitch were L. C.'s representatives to the annual Spokane invitational tennis championships.

First row: Don Neraas, John Happy, Dave Levitch, Barry Greenberg.

Second row: Ensley Rofinot, Wes Keinhotz, Bruce Cannon.

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM

Beginning the 1947 spring season with only nine experienced players, the girls' tennis squad proved serious competition for other teams. Sparked by Bettylou Fry and Helen van Tyen, the fall squad finished in second place, losing one match to N. C.

First row: Betty Brewster, Gail Myers, Muriel Olson, Helene van Tyen, Nanette Green.

Second row: Bettylou Fry, Shirley James, Arlene Pohl, Hattie Shull, Nancy Darling, Louise Goldstein, Donna Nelson.

Third row: Jean Klum, Ruthann Lindberg, Darlene Gorham, Margaret Fulton, Lynne Fry, June Kleitha, Joan Sacknitz.

Not in the picture: Leah Warzburg, Joyce Litch, Joyce Becker, Elsie Krey, Patsy Plastino, Jeannette Young, Mary Kay Rich, and Margie Hefferlin.

CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONS

The cross country team finished first, ahead of North Central and Rogers, bringing the first championship of 1947 to L. C. The Bengals proved their supremacy in the all-city meet at Comstock by taking top honors.

First row: Jim Aylworth, Gordon Simanton, Bill Nelson, Jack Allgaier, Elgin Fuller, Jerry Eyrich, Dick Bryan, Howard Reynolds.

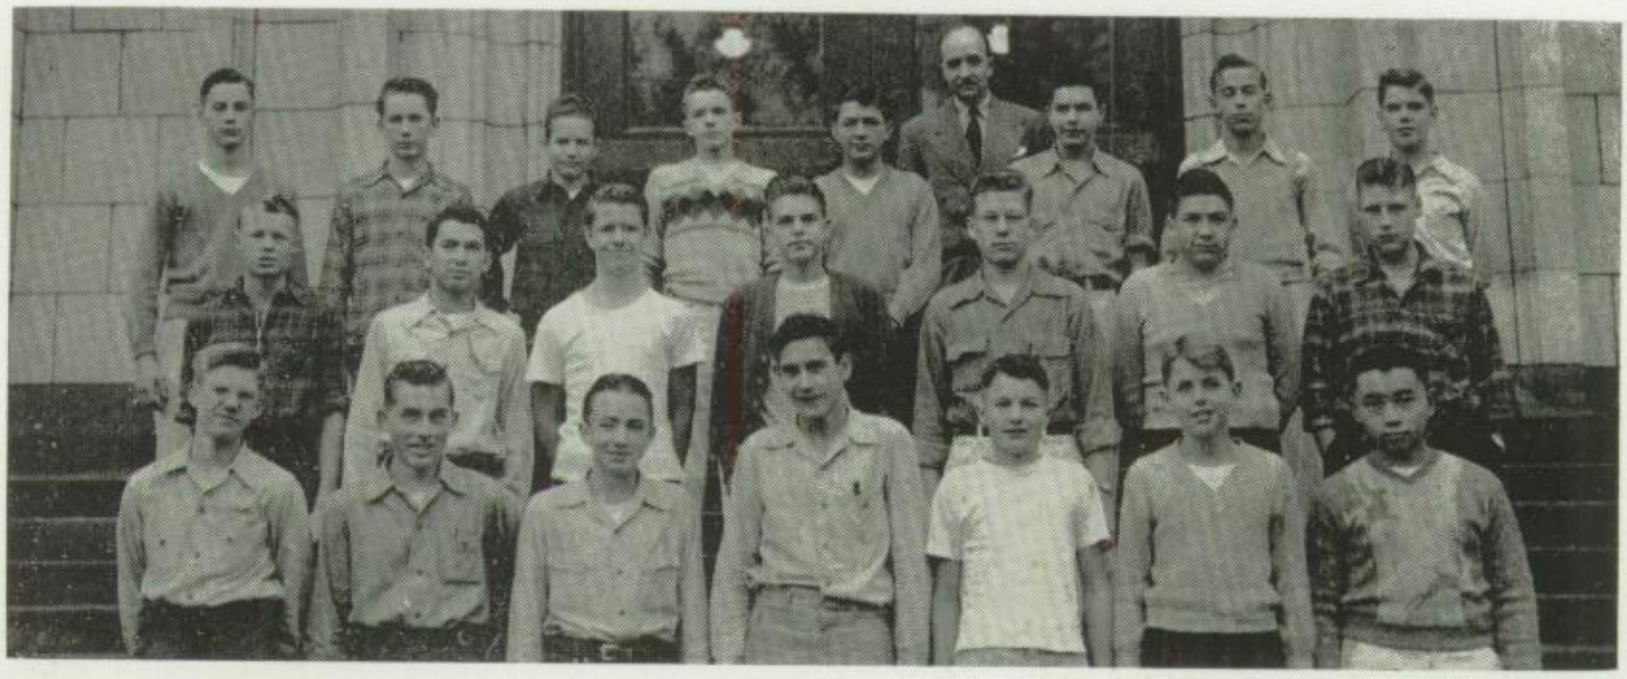
RIFLE SQUAD



The rifle team under the coaching of Mr. Minard met at the newly remodeled state armory rifle range. Roland Hodgins was chairman. Gordon Lindeen was business manager-secretary.

Second row: Frank Featherman, David Allen, Bob Shoop, Bob Herrington, Gordon Lindeen, Rod Kirkpatrick, Owen Parker.

Fourth row: Coach Minard.

THOSE MAJORETTES!

The majorettes performed at the Merry-Go-Round game and at football games. They marched in parades and gave an exhibition of twirling at the all-city football rally. Virginia Angerer is head majorette and Donna Clepper is the Band majorette.

First row: Gail Myers, Mary Lou White, Donna Clepper, Bonnie Parker.

Second row: Janet Coble, Charice Elliott, Margaret Waldref, Louise Parry, Pat Gray.

GIRLS' BADMINTON TEAM

Starting the fall season with only several experienced players, the Girls' Badminton team did better than was expected in playing Central Valley and West Valley. Much of the improvement came as a result of coaching by Miss Popple at the Y.W.C.A. and Bob Crane at the Armory.

First row: Donna Porter, Nancy Kokat, Ann Parsell, Elsie Krey, Anita Pohl, Nancy McKay.

Third row: Nancy Morrison, Margaret Fahey, Judy Halton, Nadine Kamlin, Miss Popple.

LITERARY

Dear Jim,
Here's to a good kid who'll go far with the brain that he denies that he possesses.
also to the biggest tease that I've ever known. It makes me made sometimes.
I take you succeed in everything that you want to.

P.S. what did Mr. Ford say to Mrs. Ford when they came out of the restaurant

Medea the Sorceress Prophecies

Centuries ago, I, Medea, greatest of all sorceresses lived. If it had not been because of me, tales of my race may never have been known to the world. I have one more tale to reveal to you outsiders. The January seniors appear to be ordinary people and fellow classmates, but no, they are contemporaries that you call mythical. I will relate to you the facts of their lives.

Nox Rizzi is lifting her shades of dark to make way for Aurora Sater, goddess of dawn, and right behind her is Hemera Stallman, Day.

The human race enjoyed the many benefits of fire, but that happiness might be mixed with sorrow, Jupiter Lindeen ordered Vulcan Best, god of fire, to fashion a woman. Minerva Schalkau instructed her in the industrial occupations of women, Venus Lofgren gave her grace of manners and the art of beauty, while Mercury P. Mitchell qualified her for the part of flattering and soothing. With the help of the Graces (Aglaia Butte, Euphrosyne Wakefield, Thalia Fogelquist) the Horae, Thallo Stanley, blossoming, and Carpo Smestad, harvest and fruit, she was dressed in beautiful robes and decked with flowers. Pandora Weaver was taken to Epimetheus (wise when too late) Gwynne. She brought a mysterious casket that was not to be opened. Her curiosity compelled her to open it, and then into the world flew disease. Struck, Sorrow Johnson, Vices Davis, Crimes Miller—the only consolation was Hope Blume.

A tragic day—when out of the earth rose Pluto Mead and made off with Persephone Parker, daughter of Ceres Goff, goddess of agriculture, to the underworld in a chariot with Mercury P. Mitchell leading the way. Ceres Goff mourned so that the Fates Clothe (thread of life Williams, Lachesis (fate of man) Drumheller, and Atropos (end of life) Zornes, declared Persephone Parker must spend six months in the underworld with her husband and the other six on earth with her mother.

Psyche Baldwin, a personification of a soul filled with love and beauty, awoke the jealousy of Venus Lofgren, who to get rid of her rival charged her son Cupid Sanders to inspire the princess with love for some common man. Instead Cupid struck with her beauty carried her off to a palace. Because of her disobedience Cupid left her. Psyche went to Venus Lofgren for help; she was subjected to menial service and on opening a box of beauty's ointment sank overpowered by the odor. Cupid could resist no longer, so brought her back to life. The anger of Venus was appeased and they were allowed to marry.

Echo Henderson, a mountain nymph and a servant of Juno Becker, had to be kept at a distance because of her talkativeness. Happening to meet Narcissus Mack, son of the river-god Cephissus Maland, she fell in love with him, a love he did not return. Echo grieved and pined until all that was left was her voice. She then took to the mountains and woods that Pan Shaw, god of green fields, frequented and occupied herself in mimicking every vocal sound she heard.

Arethusa Fehrenbacher, a nymph, sought a cool stream wherein she might bathe. She selected a spot in the Alpheus River. The river, until now smooth as a mirror, was ruffled by waves; then a voice of the river god Alpheus Scott called in pleading accents to her to lend an ear to his wooing. She fled and he pursued, over hill and dale; exhausted she cried to Diana Jarves, goddess of hunt and chase, to rescue her. A moment later she was enveloped in a thick mist and transformed into a fountain. This was soon blown away by a mischievous breath from Zephyrus Frederick. Alpheus changed into an impetuous torrent and commenced to pursue the fountain. Arethusa at last was cornered and with a change of heart, sank into Alpheus' arms and listened to his louder tones of rapturous love.

With all the good world it is still impossible to be completely rid of evil. Ate Wickham, goddess of infatuation and mischief, misled men to ruin. She cast from Olympus and henceforth wandered around the earth searching for victims, while her sisters Litai Cotter and McLaughlin, sweet-natured goddesses, followed to recompense the distressed men.

The one god feared by all is Mars Stanton, god of war. He delighted in the din of battle and dangers of war. His attendants were Eris Flagan (Discord), Phobos Griesil (Alarm), Metus Kistich (Fear), Demois Fausett (Dread), Pallor McFerran (Terror) and Enyo Childers, goddess of war. They sympathized with his quarrelsome tastes.

Every kingdom must have some laws and ours was no exception. Nemesis Pohl, goddess of punishment, and her attendants Dike Giles (Justice) and the Furies; Tisiphone Celio (avenger of murder), Alecto Riley (unwearied persecutor), Megaera Alger (the grim), helped to execute the laws. They condemned to Tartarus four kings; Tantalus Leath, Salmonius Bartlett, Ixion Vails, Sispyhus Anderson and a giant Tityus Kennedy, who had outraged the gods, also Lamphere, one of the Danaides, for the murder of her husband, Minos Dahlbergh. Rhadamanthus Livengood and Aeacus Morrison were the judges in the underworld to determine whether a soul was good or evil.

Neptune R. Mitchell, god of sea, lived in a palace in the depth of the waters and rode on the waves in a swift chariot drawn by golden steeds. His approach was announced by Triton Castle, his son. With the assistance of the wind gods Boreas Vitale (north wind), Eurus Fisback (east wind), Notus MacLeod (south wind), and Zephyrus Frederick (west wind) Neptune guides all things on his waterways.

Each year the gods and goddesses would celebrate with the wildest merrymaking the Bacchanalia in honor of Bacchus Kitterman, god of wine. The Muses, under the leadership of Apollo Saunders, sun god, would entertain. Clio Peterson (History) and Calliope (Heroic Poetry) related stories and poems of the great deeds and heroic actions; Melpomene Allen (Tragedy) always wrung the hearts of the gods with her sad tales; Thalia Danielson (Comedy) would revive the happy spirit Euterpe Ebner (Music) would play the flute; while Terpischore Clepper (Dance) performed and Polyhymnia Barton (Song) and Erato Matlock (Love and Marriage Songs) sang.

Someday you will see Iris Kirihara, goddess of the rainbow, in flight across the sky and with her will be I, Medea Huff, and my people returning once more to our abodes.

January Class Makes Bequests

The one-hundred and seventh graduating class,
Their last will and testament to you do pass,
We the seniors bid sad farewell
To all who in Lewis and Clark now dwell.
And out into the world so bitter and cold,
We march forth to make an everlasting hold.
To the oncoming seniors, Carol Jarvis bequeaths
Mr. Herring—
Oh, excuse me the name is Perring!
Three semesters fun cheerleading is left by Barbara Henderson, a peppy lass.
To Ann Marie Ayres, for Barb is sure she's able to pass.
Hank Kitterman leaves his proctor post in Frosh study hall
To Tom Wells, a boy right on the ball!!
Gordie Lindeen has ability to catch busses on the fly—
Could be Bill Graffis who needs to try!
From Bob MacLeod to Enslay Rofirot is willed hay fever,
For this I care not, I'm sure they don't either!!
Poor Leo Fausett considers L. C. an unhappy fate,
So he bequeaths our school to anyone who it do not hate.
To some innocent frosh to improve a bit
Barb Fehrenbacher wills the good grades she didn't get!
John Maland, who is in school everyday,
Desires his friend DeVern Taylor to become that way!
An unfortunate position in a dramatics play is willed by Mark Livengood,
To his uncle's grandmother on his father's side,
Dig him? Wish I could!
Ginny Lofgren's strange lunch time ability
Is now "Mac" MacKay's, with peace and tranquillity!
Make-ups in Taylor's office are left by Miller, Bill
For Doug Anderson, who may have more than Bill ever will!
Katherine Matlock leaves the most popular motorcycle in town
To Mr. Orcutt, (please don't let it get you down).
Shy "Mousie" McLaughlin has denounced her name;
She hopes sister Ruth will bring it new fame.
Ray Simon receives liking history from Alvin Shaw:
Ray, you can't refuse according to the law.
An offer from Joyce Becker, with which we know she hates to part
Is Mama's dill pickles to her bosom pal, Jackie Hart.
To Jeanne Leanerd, the lucky girl,
Are given L. C.'s good teachers from Alger, Beryl.
Our romantic soul, Don Bartlett, who seems tired of them all

Congratulations to the Graduates

Our sincere wish that graduating classes of 1948 will be the finest ever from Lewis and Clark and may your school have many more fine graduations ! !

Wills the Rogers women to anyone who wants to take a fall!

Dale Pointer, Bill Shelchuk wills you his brains—

Can you use them to further your aims?

Betty Stallman bequeaths her sis ability to lose things—

My Doris, what a meanie your sister slings!

History assignments are left by Wayne Struck

To be used by Wayne Wright, with loads of luck!

On Marilyn Fallquist falls the height of Joyce Williams,

With "All This and Heaven Too", you are sure to make millions!

John Mack, a super smooth dancer,

Wishes Ray Rouse to become this same type of prancer.

Ability of Ev Best to keep two feet on the floor in a pool game;

Is given to Dan Anderson to make his fortune and fame!

Ralph Flagan bequeaths Mr. Kramlich, who is not a "meanie"

As Math teacher, to some little "greenie!"

Glen Carlson receives Don McFerran's morning handshake greeting

Because "Mac" has no more use for this when meeting.

The charm with girls of Don Mead and Paul Mitchell

Will be inherited by some handsome frosh who can whistle!

Betty Jo Wakefield leaves her spot at the Rainbow

For Jody Anderson to use, when she is feeling mighty low!

A flat tire is given to Alice Airey by Carolyn Smestad;

Alice, don't tell sweet Carolyn to "Drop Dead!"

Laura Stanley offers her hunt and peck system of typing

To Kay Cords, who must try to be more applying.

Love for saddle and race horses from Peterson, Val,

Are given to Evelyn Russell her favorite pal!

And from our brawny hero, Ned Scott,

Goes all his size to a freshman tot!

Bob Vitale's inability to understand females passes to Karl Bock—

Is there anyone holding the key to this lock?

A.S.B. President Phil Stanton has stood for all that is right,

His office and gavel he bequeaths to someone with plenty of foresight.

Bill Fishback's love for Coplen Park girls has faded;

To John Lacey they now pass; so beware, girls, dear John will not be evaded!

Marilyn "Dimples" Fogelquist sells,

Her nickname to Tommy Wells.

Sixth period Donna Goff has a certain proctor post,

That is guaranteed to give Kathy Green a boast. (Has to rhyme)

Harold Gwynne wills the knack of coming to school everyday

To Quentin White; in the end it's sure to pay!!

His pride and joy is Don Castle's gift,

A corduroy sport coat, to Gregory Colpitts.

The thrills of Mr. Thompson's history class,

Bev Wickham leaves to Donna Johnston, a top rating lass!

Jack Fredericks could never get along with "Skip"

To future chemistry students he goes (Try not to trip).

A supply of pens, from Betty Childers, is a useful thing, so that her homework

Pat Thompson, will never more shirk!

Clinton Deavis wills Gordon Latt ability to drive a car;

Just stop, look, and listen, is the best motto by far!

Twirlling art is given by a majorette;

From Donna Clepper to sister Bev; she'll make the grade, you bet!

Miriam Blue gives her ability to dine

To Midge Warren, who does divine.

Back to Mr. Toevs now goes a U. S. history book,

Into which Mel Dahlberg has never bothered to look.

Joan Drumheller, out of auto wrecks stays;

And desires her brother Jack to try these ways!

A gift of eleven West Valley boys, Daisy Duncan will never mind;

Why does Arlene Pohl desire to be rid of such a find?

Dorothy Allen gives Nancy Lyall to keep

An everlasting seat in her quaint G. I. jeep!!

Bob Sanders offers his knack for getting dates

To Wayne Chandler, one who already rates!!!

The patience of Joy Messex and her co-operation

Goes to Mr. Canup, for this is never on ration.

Marguerite Sater's love for chemistry keeps her from being blue;

Now it passes on to anyone who needs it, do you?

Helen Riley leaves fun going steady for over a year
To Jeanne Peterson, she has never come so near.
A physics book Dick Morrison wills and many hours reading such
This we know Bob Daniels will love and cherish much.
Lois Zornes donates her sister a seat in study hall;
Away back there you'll hear not Mrs. Collins' call!
John Anderson leaves his make-up time
To brother Charlie, without even charging a dime!
Ability to flirt with all the boys by Danielson, our "Beulah" fair,
Is left to Ann Marie Ayres; who will certainly do her share!
Ronnie Mitchell, our president of the seniors,
Wills his seat in Mr. Whitman's class to a stupid junior.
Lorelie Rabbitt is given the school spirit of Joyce Baldwin;
A gift like that can hardly be called a sin.
From Bonnie Butte, to whom "Riches Are Not Wealth," Goes all her money to Ray Rowse, to further his good health.
"Oh, Please," said Elaine Ebener, "give my straight blond hair
To Pat Sheely, I'm sure for it she will care!"
Peggy Sue Cello leaves her ability to drive a car
For her brother Frank who drives with a jerk and a jar!
Pink Angora mittens are willed to Marilyn Rist
From June Schalkau, a lover of jest!
Art of making better model planes
From Finlay Johnson on Bud Nelson rains.
Gloria Johnson's natural blond hair
Is bequeathed to Ruth Johnson—beware!
For the school from Giles, Joan
Is given Edsol Sneva, as a loan!
Ginny Barton offers a position on the football squad
To Jody Rundstrom; Ginny are you a fraud?
A bottle of peroxide for the sister of Bonnie Parker;
To keep her hair from becoming darker!
A comic book is willed to John Lacey
From Art Leath; guaranteed to be racy.
Love of red heads now may
Pass from Maxine Rizzi, to Elkins, Gae!
Ability to swing by my teeth, by Bruce Vails,
On the rope backstage, is willed to Don Saylor, who quails.
Hartley Kruger receives a gag
Sally Weavers long, slender legs!

And I shall will to all of you,
The many hours that have made me blue
In trying my best my wit to awaken,
Which you have so lightly taken.
Oh please! with me do not be rough
Respectfully submitted by———Carol Huff.

Ballad of the Old West

By Patsy Brock

Now Tex was a wild west bandit
Out on the western plains
He rode a horse as black as night,
Drank whiskey for his pains.
His Indian friend, Nebraska,
Was usually at his side.
And the fair Lolita
Tex had chosen for his bride.
But Lolita did love Pancho
The sheriff of the town.
So Tex a mighty plan did make
To shoot poor Pancho down.
On one dark night at half past one,
When all the town was still
Poor Pancho drew a gasp of fear
To see Tex riding down the hill.
A click—a shot—then silence reigned,
Save for a horse retreating.
Our Pancho lay upon the ground,
His heart no more was beating.
Straight to Lolita's house
And Tex knocked on her door.
"Come with me, my pretty one
For Pancho is no more!"
Tex snatched her up and rode away.
Into the night he fled.
"We're going to my mountain den
You're mine now, gal," he said.
Lolita cried and wrung her hands
Due to her tearful plight.
But Tex just laughed and spurred his horse
And rode into the night.

My Poem

By Virginia Vincent

In typing class, I sit and drum—
In history class, I plot and scheme.
In not a single class all day
Do I, one bit of attention pay,
Except in study hall, which comes third,
In there I listen to every word.

Faith

By Virginia Vincent

I saw a bird fly overhead
And wondered why so late he fled
The winter's icy blast;
And how he knew just where to fly—
Was there some signpost in the sky
To guide him 'till he is home at last?

This space is for autographs

Friendship

By Rita Jean Gray

Oh why must there be hatred
In this world of ours today,
When people live and think and believe
In the same old fashioned way?
God put us here as equals,
Each one like the other.
But yet there are some people
Who believe they're so above their brother.
Some people offer friendship
With the best of thoughts in mind,
But those to whom they offer it say,
"I don't want that kind."
Some day that person will need a friend,
To help him out of trouble.
And then along that lonely road
He alone will stumble.
Perhaps if he had taken that friend long ago,
His journey along that lonely road would not have been so slow.
A friend will be there to help you
When you need it most of all.
And if he isn't just right there,
All you need do is call.
And he will be there waiting,
To do what he can do.
A friend will ever be ready
To help or counsel you.

The Two Puppets

By Carol Huff

Two little puppets, so I've been told,
  Once danced upon a stage of gold—
Fay's head and arms were all of wax,
  While Gay's were made of wool and tacks;
Fay's cheeks were rosy and her eyes were a brilliant green,
  While Gay's cheeks were pale and her eyes
    were hardly seen;
Fay's hair curled in ebony rings,
  While Gay's hung like two brown strings;
Therefore you see, Fay could never deign
  To dance with a puppet who was coarse and plain—
One was for beauty and one for ability;
  One was for duty and one like nobility;
And that's the way of the world, so I've been told.
When first they met on a placing shelf—
  Gay greeted Fay most urbanely;
Fay saw that Gay quite forgot her place
  And told her so very plainly—
"Your birth is shown in your wooden face;
  Of waxen blood you have not a trace;
So once for all be it understood
  That wax may never consort with wood."
Then she said with a freezing stare,
    "I'm for beauty and you're for duty,
You're for use and I'm for show;"
  And that's the way of the world, you know.
All on a fatal summer's day
  The pair from the shelf were taken—
To be thrown amongst the hay
  And then they were both forsaken.
Then while Fay lay in the noonday sun,
  The bloom on her cheeks began to run;
Her eyes fell out and her nose fell in,
  And she lost forever her rounded chin;
Then Gay, who had never turned a hair,
  Said, "You're for beauty and I'm for duty,
I'm for use and you're for show,"
  And that's the way of the world, you know.

Spring Fever

By Virginia Vincent

The wind tugs at me all day long,
  The birds sing their familiar song,
They call, telling me, "come along!"
  But I cannot follow.
"We'll show you places of far away.
  So come and wander with us today.
Come on, let us be on our way,
  There'll be no tomorrow."
